LGM Pharma Attends CPhI Conference in Germany

BOCA RATON, Florida—LGM Pharma, a supplier of active pharmaceutical ingredients (APIs), recently attended the CPhI Worldwide Conference in Frankfurt, Germany. The conference agenda tackled the most timely and business critical issues facing the pharmaceutical industry today.

According to Mendy Schurder, COO of LGM Pharma, "By attending a CPhI conference, we had the opportunity to gather the latest market trends, explore key case study insights and benefit from exceptional networking opportunities all under one roof."

During the conference, representatives of LGM Pharma met with strategic manufacturers to discuss involvement in the development of commercial products.

"Now that LGM Pharma has gained a certain reputation, we received positive feedback from manufacturers who were enthusiastic about working with us," continued Mr. Schurder. "We had a number of successful meetings with clients and brought them key projects. We were delighted with their interest in working with us."
